S. Thomas Greeley : 1,344,000 Revolutions: Bikecentennial Transamerica Bicycle Trail before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 1,344,000 Revolutions: Bikecentennial Transamerica Bicycle Trail:

In 1980 Tom Greeley took the adventure of a lifetime riding his bicycle from Virginia to Oregon 4,200 miles in 82 days. He joined BikeCentennial the Transamerica Bicycle Trail organization along with eight other cycling enthusiasts, and was able to experience something that people only dream about. They went from east to west and endured some of the most difficult terrain imaginable. Their ages ranged from 19 to 75 that gives proof that if you can imagine it, you can accomplish almost anything. 1,344,000 Revolutions will help you feel what Tom felt both emotionally and physically mile by mile. This truly is a ride worth experiencing.
