very happy I bought this new book by Monica DiNatale! I ordered it on Monday and delivered it by Thursday. Not bad!!The book is a wonderful and essential guide for those of us who visit, live or work in Manhattan. Many times I am looking for new places to check out when I go out to eat, or have a drink or two. As many of you already know, New York City can be pretty overwhelming with all the choices there are for food and drink.Luckily, "365 Guide - New York City" provides us with a resource that offers readers with an abundance of ideas choices - while at the same time finding the best bargains in town! (With the money I saved on dining, the book paid for itself on day one!)The book covers all of NYC - from way up in Inwood, to all the way down to the Financial District. There is a section devoted to seasonal deals and also an index for weekend deals. The book even contains a subway map!! The author has thought of practically everything.Grab your copy today. I think you will love it!0 of 0 people found the following
