

777 Cheap Eats in Las Vegas

Wendy Y. Tucker

ebooks | Download PDF | *ePub | DOC | audiobook

Download

Read Online

#3715245 in Books 2003-03-31 2003-05-21Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 8.50 x .32 x 5.511, .43 #File Name: 0971048614136 pages | File size: 53.Mb

Wendy Y. Tucker : 777 Cheap Eats in Las Vegas before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 777 Cheap Eats in Las Vegas:

11 of 11 people found the following review helpful. "Cheap Eats" not very helpfulBy CustomerI've been to Las Vegas many times for business and pleasure. I did not find this book very helpful. While the concept for a 1 to 777 ranking of restaurant values is a good idea, this book has no information about the restaurants or their food. With ranking by price in various categories, you could use it as a cross-reference to the Unofficial Guide or Frommers. But who has the time? Just use one of those 2 books first -- both are good. This book would be useful to a Las Vegas resident, but is of limited value for a visitor. Prices have really gone up this year, so the information is out-of-date by as much as 50 percent. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. nothing i did not already know By vlcnothing i did not already know, most of the stuff I knew already or are basic general ideas. I gave it to my library. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. 777 Cheap Eats in Las Vegas: 2003 Edition By Vacation Wonders I will be heading to Las Vegas in a few weeks and found this book very helpful, not only for the great restaurant's but their locations as well. This book will enable myself and my family to enjoy our vacation, and find some wonderful places to dine at reasonable prices as well.

777 Cheap Eats in Las Vegas is the most comprehensive listing of dining bargains ever compiled for the Las Vegas area. This paperback book is updated annually, contains 121 pages, and is a bargain itself at the retail price of $11.77. The book is organized into seven chapters: Price, Location, Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner, Buffets, and 24-hour Dining. Listing information includes the offering establishment, phone number, street address, and hours and days of availability.

About the Author Wendy Y. Tucker is a Las Vegas native, freelance writer, and columnist for What's On magazine, the city's premier entertainment and dining guide. She is the owner of Triple Seven Press, a small Las Vegas company that helps writers self-publish their books. She enjoys reading, dining out, wine tasting, traveling, knitting, and playing with her three adorable nieces. 777 Cheap Eats in Las Vegas is her first book. Excerpt. Reprinted by permission. All rights reserved. Foreword I've been a restaurant reviewer since 1974. I've eaten at many of the finest restaurants in the world and paid dearly for the privilege. Can you imagine finding out about fine fare at a fair (or even free) price? Here's a book that does just that. Back in the 1960's, when a ticket to see Elvis along with a lobster dinner cost an outrageous $25, cuisine here was synonymous with casinos. Today, the town has hit the jackpot by attracting star chefs. Nowadays, there are just as many dining options in Las Vegas as New York, LA, or Paris. But what we have that they don't are the best prices on the planet! I'll bet there's no place else on earth where you can have a fabulous meal for what you're used to paying as the tip. Welcome to Las Vegas! Wendy's exhaustive study has cooked up a comprehensive listing of the best places with the best prices. You can land at McCarran Airport and become an instant local, possessing knowledge it took me years to learn. She serves up the inside scoop on everything from steak to snacks. Unlike me, Wendy is very organized. She has arranged her information by price, by meal, and by location. Making dining decisions is easy with her book as your guide. I rarely make a dining choice without consulting this book. As Woody Allen used to preach in his stand-up routines, "Why pay retail when you can pay wholesale?" Pocket your savings and use them to buy another ticket back to Las Vegas...or, if you're a local, a house with a bigger kitchen! ((hugs)), Beth Ellyn Rosenthal The Eater Extraordinaire KLAS Radio, AM 1230 Host of "Las Vegas Night Out" live every Saturday at 2 p.m.