New; pristine. See scans and description. San Francisco: Afar Media, 2014. The October, 2014 issue of AFAR magazine - "Where Travel Can Take You". Quarto, illustrated perfect-bound wraps, 132 pp. New; quite flawless. See scans. Founded in 2009, AFAR is a multiple-sword-winning publication, a leading light of the Experiential Travel (immersion travel) genre, in which the traveler self-immerses as much as possible in local culture, customs, geography, history and individual people. Extraordinarily professional photography and journalism from that standpoint make every page worthy of scanning and presenting here, if that were possible. Some of this issue's feature topics are: Mongolia, Mexico City, Mallorca, San Francisco, Hong Kong, Suno Fashion, Yelapa, Chef Jose Garces, Plaid, Tokyo, Qatar. Much more. A soon-to-be genre collectible issue, in superb condition. Ships in a new, sturdy, protective box - not a bag. LPR26
