Karl Bradshaw-White : Algarve Travel Guide: 54 Cities/Towns/Villages before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Algarve Travel Guide: 54 Cities/Towns/Villages:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Good tips By KA Would be helpful to have maps to visualize the town's and parishes describe in the book. Would be helpful to name more restaurants and give addresses. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good resource. By James McClure Good little resource book for the Algarve. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Useless unless lacking toilet paper By jeffrey robert dunlap Save your money; first 10 pages of useful info also found on Internet: lacks any touristic hints or info- lots of content on non interesting buildings

One of the largest tour guides for the Algarve (Southern Portugal) covering 54 Cities/Towns/Villages. Find hidden gems and beach hideaways you never knew existed. Money saving tips before booking your holiday. Festivals, fairs, events for the each month, market and flea market dates, golfing courses, camping sites, attractions, zoos and waterparks. Packed full of useful and helpful advice on almost any subject, easy food translation guide including eating out and other useful phrases, conversion charts, driving information with distance chart to help plan your days out. Airport information as well as clock change times. Interesting facts that will leave you amazed, a brief history of how the Algarve was formed. At last, a guide book you won't want to put down.

About the Author Karl Bradshaw-White was born in London in 1962, educated at Tylney Hall Boarding school in Hampshire. He has been an antiques and fine arts dealer and has worked in furniture restoration for 30 years. He is a self-taught artist exhibited at Beecroft art gallery in Southend, picking up a Beecroft award for work displayed. He entered the world of miniature making in the late 1990's becoming one of the only artists in the world to specialise in Pietra Dura, a 17th century art working in marble and semi-precious stones, with work displayed in museums around the world. Karl is now semi-retired living with his partner of 35 years.
