Rick Watson : Gothere: A Journey From Working Stiff to Happy Camper before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Gothere: A Journey From Working Stiff to Happy Camper:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Boomers will thoroughly enjoy this "bumpy ride"! By Linda S. O'neal Anyone looking for a grand time must read "Go There"! The adventures of Rick and Linda are exciting and hilarious, but while you are being charmed you are also being educated in the ways of the road from the perspective of the Motorhome dwellers! Traveling in a Motorhome across the country and learning about that lifestyle is on lots of us "Boomers Bucket Lists". I'm looking forward to making the leap into retirement in my motorhome and being able to afford to see the country thanks to "Go There".

Retiring? Thinking of RVing full time? Then GOTHERE: The Journey from Working Stiff to Happy Camper is a must read that just might save you $100,000 or maybe your life.

About the Author Rick and Linda Watson travel the North American continent in their motorhome and have done so with their two cats, Katy and Sweetheart, since Rick retired from saving the salmon as a fish biologist. This is Linda's first book aimed at adults and Rick's second book since retiring. Missing: The Oregon City Girls, by Linda O Neal, Philip Tennyson and Rick Watson, came out in hardcover (New Horizon Press, 2006) and mass paperback, The Missing Girls (St. Martin's Paperbacks 2007). The Watsons are working on their next book at a RV Park or campground near you. Stop by and say hello.
