Jeremy Evans : Great Cycle Routes: The North and South Downs before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Great Cycle Routes: The North and South Downs:

This book contains routes for both off and on road enthusiasts, graded for length and level of difficulty. Each route includes a detailed map, points of interest and refreshment stops, and a lively description of the terrain to be encountered. All cyclists, young or old, mountain biker or tourer, will find something to suit them. The entire South Downs way, between Petersfield and Eastbourne, is covered in 3 rides, and the North Downs routes will take the cyclist along the southern line of the M25 from Surrey into Kent.
