Tip: Pronounce the phonetic just as you see them. The underlines let you know which syllable to stress. Don't worry as it will come naturally after a bit of practice. And above all, have fun!

On the back of this Language Map[®] you will find a quick reference guide to the Greek alphabet. This Language Map[®] uses all uppercase letters to make learning Greek easier. Once you are comfortable with the language, practice writing out the same words using the lowercase Greek letters provided on the alphabet page.

Kristine K. Kershul : GREEK a language map before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised GREEK a language map:

I did learn one word, for 'thank you', but I didn't need this to learn it. We were only there a couple of days, stayed in Athens. It's really nicely done, might work well for people who go to rural areas. I broke my phone which has a translating app. So, if needed, this would have done nicely. Very well done phonetics.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy JenGreat quick reference for frequently used words and pharses.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Can't wait to go to Greece!By SuzzaA lot of info in a small package!

About the AuthorKristine K. Kershul blends her experience as a teacher, world traveler and language scholar to create a playful, innovative way to learn and use a new language. Teacher As an expert linguist, Kristine spent ten years teaching German at universities in the United States and in Europe. World Traveler An adventurous spirit, Kristine has explored more than 100 countries, from Bhutan to Zimbabwe, and almost every exotic locale in between. She understands the problems that all travelers encounter, regardless of which country they are visiting. She knows first-hand how languages can open doors to new adventures, new friends and different cultures. Language Scholar Kristine completed her undergraduate and graduate studies while living in Heidelberg, Germany. She then received a second Master's Degree from the University of California in Santa Barbara and subsequently, did her Doctoral studies in Medieval German Languages and Literature. In addition to German, she also speaks a number of other languages ranging from Arabic to Swahili. A Colorful Background Kristine's fascination for languages began as a child growing up in a tri-lingual household in Oregon, where Croatian, Danish and English were spoken. Kristine's natural gift for languages opened doors outside the academic world. She worked as a bilingual travel guide in Europe and later, as a translator at the U.S. Embassy in Germany. On A Personal Note Kristine's passion for travel, foreign languages and new cultures continues to take her around the world. One never knows where she'll venture to next - Namibia, Laos or Guyana. Kristine is a licensed pilot, a certified diver and an avid downhill skier. She enjoys competitive horseback riding and playing the piano. She makes her home in both Seattle, Washington and in Cape Town, South Africa.
