Guy Fox : Guy Fox London Children's Map before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Guy Fox London Children's Map:

I used it with my 5yo son for his first visit (and my first time back in years). I really can't imagine using this as your only map to get around - too many of the smaller streets are omitted, plus we needed a tube bus map - but it is really good to get a sense of where things are in relation to each other, and best of all it was nice to be able to pull out the map at the end of a day out and review all the places we'd been with my son. He really enjoyed getting to put the stickers on the map to mark where we'd done what. This also opened the door for us to a whole host of other great Guy Fox resources for London - everything I've come across so far has been really well done. Thank you Guy Fox!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great For KidsBy L. TaylorI got this for my 9 year old to start to get a feel for London before our trip there this summer. She loves it and has asked me numerous questions about London based on her "exploring" the city on the map. We will bring it with us this summer and I'm sure she will "guide" us around using her special map.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Guy Fox London Children's MapBy Lois RiggsBought this for my 12 year old granddaughter in preparation for a summer trip to London. She was very pleased with it.

Guy Fox's Children's Maps are colorful, simplified and easy to use and designed to fit in the smallest of pockets. Vivid illustrations and bold lettering help children pick the destinations and plan the route for a day out on the town. Included with the map is a sheet of fun stickers to mark favorite spots. 2007.

[Referring to the Guy Fox Children's Map of London] This is a very handy item to have in your pocket - or on a [bulletin] board at home. Although it's intended for children I suspect it could have a wider appeal among cartographically challenged parents planning a day out in London.... It's easy to tell which attractions are reasonably close together - and where to find a park to eat your sandwiches. When your kids start the old "We're bored" routine, produce this map and ask them to take you on a day out. --Sara O'Reilly, Time Out London, April 12 - 19, 2006 --Sara O'Reilly, Time Out London, April 12 - 19, 2006
