In April 2011, four soldiers - each a veteran of recent conflicts, who suffered devastating injuries in the line of duty - set out on an extraordinary challenge: a two-hundred mile trek, unsupported, to the North Pole. Joined by patron Prince Harry, the charity founders, a polar guide and a film crew, the team achieved their goal despite facing hurdles an able-bodied athlete would balk at, and having seen their resilience tested to the limit. They returned with a story that proves strength of mind can be every bit as powerful as strength of body, and as an inspiration to us all.

An amazing, inspiring story, expertly toldDaily MailAbout the AuthorMark McCrum is an experienced author and ghostwriter whose bestsellers include Somebody, Someday with Robbie Williams and the tie-in to the BBC series Castaway.
