Jurgen Seeher : Hattusha Guide: A Day in the Hittite Capital before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hattusha Guide: A Day in the Hittite Capital:

This guide includes a practical itinerary that leads you past all the most significant features of the ancient capital, including the rock-cut sanctuary of Yazilikaya nearby. Color photography and a wealth of reconstruction drawings accompany the descriptions interesting, clear and easy to read- of each monument. You will also have at hand a brief history of the city, as well as bibliographical references for further reading in various languages.
