Kristine K. Kershul : HEBREW a language map before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised HEBREW a language map:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Perfect Portable Aide! By Sorek The amazing "Hebrew in 10 minutes a day" book/CD was fantastic and totally lived up to its name! My happy experience with Ms. Kershul's book inspired me to send for the "HEBREW a language map"...and I was not disappointed at all. It's a nice portable guide and refresher for many basic and essential Hebrew words and phrases. As a language teacher myself, I can totally recommend this Language Map AND the "10 Minutes A Day" series. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A Great Language Map! By Elisa Spoliansky Incredibly helpful! Especially when walking around the streets of Jerusalem :-). Would highly recommend for travel or for basic Hebrew conversation. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By stephanie r connor Helpful for the traveler with such situations as finding locations, using the internet, meeting people, shopping, etc.

Whether it's the gorgeous beaches of Tel Aviv, the cultural and religious center of Jerusalem, or your family heritage that beckons you, you'll want to take HEBREW a language map with you as you travel throughout Israel. This clever language guide snaps open to give you exactly what you need at a glance. Ask for directions, order an ice cream (gleedah), and shop for pottery and souvenirs, all in Hebrew! Slip this Language Map into your pocket and take it everywhere you go, from Eilat to Tiberias. Hundreds of words and phrases you'll need most divided into key categories such as Asking Questions, Dining Out, Meeting People, Shopping, Sightseeing, Transportation and much more. Unique snap-open and fold design. Pronunciation is easy with simple phonetics. Ultra-thin (barely 1/8 thick) and light-weight (under two ounces). Laminated for durability. Folds up like a map to slip easily into your pocket or bag. Full color, original artwork.

About the Author Kristine K. Kershul blends her experience as a teacher, world traveler and language scholar to create a playful, innovative way to learn and use a new language. Teacher: As an expert linguist, Kristine spent ten years teaching German at universities in the United States and in Europe. World Traveler: An adventurous spirit, Kristine has explored more than 100 countries, from Bhutan to Zimbabwe, and almost every exotic locale in between. She understands the problems that all travelers encounter, regardless of which country they are visiting. She knows first-hand how languages can open doors to new adventures, new friends and different cultures. Language Scholar: Kristine completed her undergraduate and graduate studies while living in Heidelberg, Germany. She then received a second Master's Degree from the University of California in Santa Barbara and subsequently, did her Doctoral studies in Medieval German Languages and Literature. In addition to German she also speaks a number of other languages ranging from Arabic to Swahili. A Colorful Background: Kristine's fascination for languages began as a child growing up in a tri-lingual household in Oregon, where Croatian, Danish and English were spoken. Kristine's natural gift for languages opened doors outside the academic world. She worked as a bilingual travel guide in Europe and later, as a translator at the U.S. Embassy in Germany. On A Personal Note: Kristine's passion for travel, foreign languages and new cultures continues to take her around the world. One never knows where she'll venture to next - Namibia, Kiribati or Guyana. Kristine is a licensed pilot, a certified diver and an avid downhill skier. She enjoys competitive horseback riding and playing the piano. She makes her home in both Seattle, Washington and in Cape Town, South Africa.
