Mr Neil Harrison : High Horizons: cycling tours in the Alps before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised High Horizons: cycling tours in the Alps:

Join the author on tours covering over 3,000km through and over the Alps. Following paths created during pre-history, enhanced as military roads by the Romans and still used today, these routes travel through amazing scenery, link diverse cultures, showcase beautiful architecture and delight the traveller. These tours include Switzerland, Austria, Italy, and Slovenia they pass the sources of rivers which reach the Black Sea, the Adriatic, the Mediterranean and the North Sea, all seen from the perspective of a bicycle. Follow the author on his journeys through glorious unspoilt landscapes, around magnificent alpine lakes, over borders and above all glimpse those high horizons. Included maps of the individual stages.

About the Author Neil Harrison was born in Blackburn Lancashire and studied Pure and Applied Physics in which he received a first class degree. He worked for over 20 years in the space and telecom's industries, based in the UK, Germany and France. In the course of this work he established and managed Telecoms engineering design companies.
