Fantastic Read - EmpoweringBy TL BarnesThis book takes me on two journeys; the many adventures of 'Vagabonda', and a trip through my own childhood. For me, I love it because of the way she expresses the way it feels to see the simple things in life... the way she describes the wind moving through the trees, and the shocking beauty of the moon. It feels familiar; I sink into a comfort while reading it. It simultaneously makes me want to go out camping and sit and read more.

Author A. Lynn Ash, aka Vagabonda, roams solo throughout the West. In a tent, a camper, a pickup or tent-trailer, Ash takes you along as she crashes on a snowy mountain road, comes face to face with a bear in the Colorado mountains, and tangles with a troop of rowdy men in Eastern Oregon.
