By Patricia Barter Bought this for a friend who had recently returned from Venice. I took a look through it before passing it along. Great illustrations and my friend was happy with it. It will be useful for him when looking for shades of color in his paintings. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Customer LIKE REVISITING AIX

Venice, a mosaic of over 100 islands, many connected by the 400 bridges which span its famous canals, is possibly the most romantic city in the world. It began as a village in the marshes and grew into a formidable sea power, dubbed the Queen of the Adriatic. Now its fading glories - the canals and palaces, monuments and churches - battle with the elements, yet remain breathtakingly beautiful. Artist Fabrice Moireau showcases Venice's grand attractions and hidden charms through his watercolour paintings and pencil sketches.
