Admiral Don A De Cordova : Voyage of Discovery before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Voyage of Discovery:

De Cordova's account of this voyage, undertaken in the late 18th century to establish whether or not passage could be made through the Strait of Magellan to the Pacific, recalls the perils of the early days of travel at sea, and the land and peoples of Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego.

About the AuthorDe Cordova was an eighteenth-century adventurer and explorer to the Spanish court.
