ValtinI was disappointed as I was looking for good places on the Eastern Shore - to eat and shop. I thought was and update of the original book. However, I will keep it in case we travel to the areas in the future.

People trust Weekends for Two when they want to plan that special getaway. Now this best-selling series expands its territory. Filled with terrific photographs shot on location, this informative guide showcases the most romantic destinations on the coast, in the cities, and in the countryside of the much-traveled mid-Atlantic region. From a 200-year-old stone farmhouse in rural Virginia to a lodge on Lake Placid, this unique travel resource lists the places couples will want to visit again and again.
